

Carry Zip Brief

A collection driven by how people carry.

We're taking the foundational design principals that we've been innovating for 23 years to create essential carrying forms focused on the protection and mobility today's laptop users need.

The Carry™ Brief by Incase is a sleek, light-weight protective solution designed from a dual-weave polyester fabrication. Utilizing the intentional design specifics of the Incase brand, the Carry™ collection products are designed for universal laptop devices at competitive prices.
