FINISHING

Wake up in style with Ray Clock, the cutting-edge alarm clock from Lexon featuring a unique striped aluminum body, a deep pure black VA LCD display, and a large variety of sounds and melodies.

Effortlessly enable or disable your alarms by simply tilting the product on its base. The embedded temperature and hygrometry sensor deliver daily useful information; its built-in battery, rechargeable via USB-C, provides up to 6 months of energy. The special night mode allows you to sleep without disturbing light, and a simple touch will help you check the time when needed.
