About The Product

Go all out with our most versatile strap. Whether it's for intense workouts, your work day, or for both and everything else in between, the reversible design, breathable and water-resistant construction, and the easy magnetic attachment ensures you and your wearable device are always at the ready.

Why have we created Active Band?

A key part of the modern lifestyle we aspire towards is balance – a balance between work and play, between routine and adventure, between being ambitious and focused and being active and free. So we needed a wearable that can keep up. We created Active Band to be rugged and breathable enough for sports and workouts, while refined enough for all other occasions. It's the ultimate strap for life, designed to be as well-rounded and as ready for action as we strive to be.

Thoughtfully designed to fit your lifestyle

- Duo-color reversible design to change up your look in snap
- Durable enough for workouts, refined enough for any professional or social occasion
- Simple, snap-on attachment with strong magnets
- Magnetic buckle keeps your band extra secure
- Sports-ready with a secure hold & dust, sweat, and water resistant finishing
- Crafted with lightweight, breathable silicone for all-day comfort & long-lasting durability
- Designed for any wrist size down to the millimeter with magnetic attachment across the entire band
