Active Sport Loop for Apple Watch

About The Product

Go further, move freer. Active Sport Loop is engineered for your active life. Combining an ultra-lightweight, double-layer nylon weave with a precision-engineered hook-and-loop fastener, it delivers exceptional breathability and personalized comfort that lasts from your first rep to your final lap. This is the essential strap for peak performance and all-day wear. d your wearable device are always at the ready.

Why have we created Active Sport Loop?

True performance isn't just about intensity; it's about sustained effort and mindful movement. We designed the Active Sport Loop for those who push limits but value comfort, who demand durability but refuse to compromise on feel. It's the result of rethinking the classic sport band – transforming it into an ultra-breathable, barely-there strap that actively works with you. This strap is for the long run, the extended session, and everything in between.

Thoughtfully designed to fit your lifestyle

- Breathable & ultra-lightweight design for all-day comfort in any sport
- Easily adjustable with a woven pull tab and a secure hook-and-loop fastener for a perfect, custom fit
- Double-layer nylon weave cushions the skin while actively wicking away moisture and drying quickly*
- Crafted from durable woven nylon with reinforced hook-and-loop fastener for long-lasting wear
- Integrated woven stopper helps keep the band securely in place
- A refined yet rugged look designed for the track, gym, and everyday life

Dries in approximately 1 hour under normal indoor conditions. Based on internal testing with a fully soaked band. Drying time may vary depending on humidity, airflow, and usage conditions.*
