Connect Bluetooth headphones to any headphone jack

- Enjoy superior sound and wireless freedom in-flight
- Effortless Bluetooth pairing and easy control buttons
- Connects two sets of wireless headphones to one device
- 25+ hour battery life, rechargeable via USB-C

The best just got better. Meet AirFly Pro 2—the simplest way to enjoy in-flight entertainment with your own wireless headphones. Say goodbye to airline-provided wired earbuds—enjoy high-quality, wire-free audio every time you fly. Now with dedicated pairing buttons and intuitive physical controls, adjusting volume is effortless. Travel smarter, upgrade your in-flight experience, and enjoy better sound.

Not just for travel—AirFly Pro 2 brings wireless convenience to everyday life. Pair your favorite wireless headphones with gym treadmills, classic stereo equipment, or even iconic devices like iPods. Wherever you go, AirFly Pro 2 keeps you connected, simply plug in, pair, and enjoy your sound, cable-free.

Pair two sets of wireless headphones with AirFly Pro 2, allowing two people to enjoy the same movie, podcast, or video game. Think of it as a wireless headphone splitter. With a simple switch, you can also stream music or directions from your phone to a car's AUX IN or bring new life to old school stereos with wireless connectivity.
