

Curve Nano

Compact, magnetic phone stand. Easy tilt. Perfect view.

- Securely holds your MagSafe or Qi2-compatible phone for hands-free use
- Adjusts smoothly to multiple angles in portrait or landscape
- Holds steady with silicone top ring and slip-resistant base
- Folds flat into included travel sleeve for ultra-compact portability and protection

Meet the Curve Nano: a fold-flat, magnetic stand designed to keep your phone at the perfect angle, wherever you are. Compatible with Qi2 and MagSafe-enabled devices, Curve Nano easily adjusts to your preferred viewing position in portrait or landscape. A hidden magnet array holds your phone securely in place, while the silicone top ring prevents slipping or shifting during use.

Crafted from durable aluminum, Curve Nano is lightweight, compact, and made for easy travel. It includes a protective travel sleeve that keeps the stand safe — and protects everything else in your bag — when you're on the move. Whether you're working, streaming, or chatting, Curve Nano delivers an easy tilt and perfect view you can rely on every time.
