

Curve Mini

Compact, adjustable tablet stand. Streamlined support.

- Raises your device up to 6 inches for better posture and hands-free comfort
- Supports both portrait and landscape modes for flexible viewing
- Securely holds iPads and tablets at multiple angles with soft silicone padding and slip-resistant base
- Folds flat with a protective travel case for compact, lightweight portability

Introducing Curve Mini — the fold-flat and simple-to-pack stand that's designed to easily take anywhere. Whether you're working, streaming, or sketching, it lifts your device for enhanced posture and viewing comfort. Precision-tuned hinges and built-in support feet lock into place, while a weighted base and soft silicone padding keep your setup steady and your device scratch-free.

When the day is done, the Curve Mini folds flat and slides into the travel sleeve it comes with, keeping it — and your bag contents — protected. Crafted from lightweight, durable aluminum, this stand is tough yet compact enough to keep up while traveling, at work, and at home.
