airfly view

Connect Bluetooth headphones to any headphone jack with ease.

AirFly View is an easy, seamless way to enjoy in-flight entertainment with your own wireless headphones. Say goodbye to airline-provided wired earbuds and enjoy high-quality, wire-free audio every time you fly. With a built-in screen for guided setup, AirFly View makes pairing fast and intuitive, so you get to your music, movies, and media faster with less guesswork and a more refined travel experience.

Not just for travel, AirFly View brings wireless convenience to everyday listening. Pair your favorite Bluetooth headphones with gym treadmills, classic stereo equipment, or other devices with a headphone jack, and even share audio by pairing two sets of headphones at once. With up to 16 hours of battery life, USB-C charging, and Auracast support as part of the next generation of Bluetooth audio, AirFly View is designed to create an extraordinary media experience.
