

cablesnap 65w

A retractable wall charger that makes travel better by keeping cables tidy.

CableSnap is a 65W retractable wall charger that removes the frustration of traveling with tangled cords. Its spring-loaded, flat USB-C cable pulls out to a usable length of up to 29 inches (75 cm) and reels back in on its own so it stays neat in your bag and ready to use wherever your journey leads.

With enough power to fast charge laptops, tablets, and phones, CableSnap makes it easy to power your everyday travel kit from a single charger. It also supports 3-in-1 charging across two USB-C ports and one USB-A port, with wattage shared across ports when more than one device is connected. Ready to go with a built-in plug and included UK and EU travel adapters, CableSnap keeps your setup compact, capable, and organized on the road.
